REPAIRING.—Commodore Armstrong, of the Monitor Towboat Company is now, during the low water season, putting the Nail City and Monitor in a condition of thorough repair. The Monitor's machinery will be thoroughly overhauled and she will be painted. By the way, that boat is a model of neatness; her cabin is kept as clean and cory looking as if she were a passenger packet. Her cook room raises no qualms in a man's stomach over his prospective dinner. Everything is self you want a good article at the lower price go to J. T. STONE. HORNEBOOK'S BLOCK. DENTANTS, raises no qualms in a man's stomach over his prospective dinner. Everything is provided that is promotive of the comfort of the employes. The Commodore is also renovating the Nail City, lately purchased from the Wheeling Towboat and Barge Company, from deck to hurricane. Her guards are being remodeled to suit the special business of the company. All the repairs will partake of that thoroughness which is characteristic of the Captain General of the company. The Monitor Towboat Company have built up an immense business in a very few years. Some five or six years ago they commenced business with an indifferent towboat and two barges. Now they TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT they commenced business with an indiffer-ent towboat and two barges. Now they have two of the best towboats of their class on the Ohio river, and their two barges have grown into a fleet of forty-nine. The company do a large business in lumber and railroad ties, procured mostly in the Little Kanawha region. Great Drives!

tiary were in session yesterday, at Moundsville. The Board decided to let Moundsville. The Board decided to let out fifty convicts for five years to certain parties for the manufacture of wagons, etc. The firm mentioned, however, reserve the privilege of taking as many more convicts as they may want at the same rates. The firm, known as the Webster Wagon Company, consists of Mears. Benj. S. Brown, of Cotumbus, Ohio, and Webster, of Michigan. This Mr. Brown, by the way, is a cousin of Mr. C. P. Brown, the well known and popular jeweler. The penitentiary authorities will at once put up a building 240 feet long, in which the convicts operated by the Company will be worked. There will no doubt be a lively competition during the balance of the season. SPECIAL DRIVES, in order to clear out Summer Silks, All at Greatly Reduced Prices.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—The Secretary of State on Wednesday issued a certificate of incorporation to the "Webster Wagon Company," an association formed for the purpose of manufacturing and selling wagons, carriages, etc. Its principal office is to be at Moundaville, Marshall county, W. Va., and its term of 'limitation twenty years. Capital stock, $25,000 - paid in $2,500 - and privilege to increase to $50,000. The shares are $100 each, seventy-five being held by Benjamin S. The chances are that the weather will be very hot in the main for weeks to come. THE Beech Glenn Sabbath School held very pleasant picnic yesterday, near sycamore Grove.

THE farmers say this is bad weather for wheat, and that it will require great care and energy on their part to prevent serious loss in harvesting the crop. But while the wheat is suffering, core, potatose, grass and all root crops are fairly leaping forward toward a splendid maturity. Food will be cheap this year.

Business along the wharf doesn't amount to much except what the Oella does. She gets about all the business her six deckhands can handle and make her time. We think this pretty good, considering it is right in the midst of harvest and a railroad on each side of the river.

MARRIED AGAIN.—It will be remembered that Charlie Furbish, he of the Fifth Avenue Combination notoriety, became involved in a domestic quarrel with his wife, Mrs. Georgie Langley, she who successfully portrayed the character of the blind girl "Louise" in the "Two Orphans." As a result, a divorce followed shortly after the appearance in this city, two years ago, of the Furbish company, under the management of Col. Jim. Hamilton, at the Opera House. Mrs. Furbish, or "teorgie Langley," in stage nomenclature, once more was free from the bonds of wedlock. She did not mourn long for her husband, from whom she had been divorced. Not much. She was made of sterner stuff, much. She was made of sterner stuff and at once looked around for an eligible partner. She soon found one of the male persussion who suited her taste, and not ong after her divorce from Mr. Furbish she again married, her husband being a Massachusetts man of some means. Massachusetts man of some means. Thus the matter rested, until a few days since, when Mr. Charles Furbish, the divorced husband of "Georgia Langley," married the sister of his former divorced wife, who is no less a personage than Miss "Dolly Pike," who played the role of "Henriette" to Miss "Langley's" "Louise" in the "Two Orphans." Miss Pike is a charming lady both on and off the staye, is possessed of fine social qualities, is an educated and refined lady, and while Mr. Furbish's friends in this city, whose names are legion, heartily condoied with him in his domestic trouble with his first wife, they now heartily congratulate him in making the selection he did for a second sharer of his joys and sorrows.
